It wasn't meant to be!" That's exactly what Doug Hough would say about his debut album, 1211. Yes, that's right: an accident. What would you do if one of your songs (like Doug's "Meet Me At The End Of The Aisle") slipped into radio rotation and you began to get dozens of calls and e-mail's a day from people demanding a copy? You make a album, said Doug. And you fill it with some of the most powerful, most emotional material you'll ever hear from an artist. The music spans generations and genres: from the alterna-acoustic "Constant Drama Of A P.F.B." to the New Country sounds of "Just Around The Corner", 1211 hits emotion and it hits it hard. Inside the cover of 1211, Doug writes "...this is still only the beginning..." If that's true, we can't wait for the rest of the ride.
