Female fronted indie rock power trio. 6 MP3 Songs ROCK: Modern Rock, ROCK: Progressive Rock
Details: Minneapolis-based, female-fronted, acid-rock power-trio, Great Girls Blouse, is composed of husband and wife team Amy and Jason Chorney and Brian Remme on drums....a nonstop math/rock/funk/jazz/grunge band that pushes on your chest, crushing the soft, fleshy tissue within, like a faulty roller coaster safety bar. Minneapolis' Lavender Magazine writes that Great Girls Blouse, "oozes with rock attitude and sexuality." Amy's songs seem completely unique and ultimately familiar at once. Sacramento's News and Review writes that Amy's "emotional, lusty vocals are paced like a jazz vocalist laced with wailing choruses of desperation." Demoramawrites that Amy is a "super-hot alternababe in knee-highs playing kickass guitar licks." Jason plays a graphite 5-string Steinberger bass (with high B) blurred by manual wah. Maximum Ink writes that, "Jason Chorney is so fluid on bass that I swear he's playing water." Brian Remme is a funktastic set king, never wavering from his singular life-task of rocking for the Blouse.
