Details: Exciting, exceptional, And energetic, Hal Savar is a singer, songwriter, guitarist who is a once-in-a-lifetime artist and a must hear. With more than 250 originals masterfully mixing Folk, Rock, and Blues, Savar's fresh, powerful style is waiting to be discovered again and again. This is an artist who makes every song a special experience with his varied styles and pure emotion. His acoustic Rock n Roll approach, strong hooks, and haunting melodies have listeners wanting more. This self-taught musician, began learning how to play guitar at 15. He knew he was on to something when as a young student, his performances would end with the entire audience standing and screaming every time. Then he began to write originals. As he explains , " I knew something really good was up when late at night my Mom would knock on my door and tell me to turn my radio down so she could sleep, only it wasn't the radio at all. It was me working on my originals." And then there were even more interesting happenings-like when visiting the local mall a complete stranger would be singing one of Hal's songs. Or, a friend traveling across the country walks into a college club and can't believe her ears... Hal's music is playing... Even before his first professionally produced CD release. Listening to his music, you can't help but think, this guy is taking music where it belongs! And with a little of your help...
