COUNTRY: Traditional Country, COUNTRY: Western Swing Details: Born in Portland, Indiana, a small and thriving working community, Jeff has indulged himself in the world of music since he was a child. He began as almost all country singers do, by singing soulful music in choir sessions in church. His love for singing and entertaining led him to any ,and all charity events ,and nursing homes where young Jeff Craig, still in Jr. High could perform. While in high school, he won several first place awards-medals at Ball State University in Muncie, Indiana. A seasoned and an accomplished entertainer/musician, Jeff has played many venues with reputable bands and artists. Jeff plays the drums, piano, harmonica, and guitar. He is also a gifted songwriter. Craig wrote five of the songs on his CD entitled "My boots are out dancing again", on Seals Records Nashville ,which were also recorded at Breeden recording studios 3rd floor United Artists Tower (music row) Nashville. The CD was produced by producer / songwriter Chuck Seals, writer of the famed hit "Crazy Arms" recorded by over 300 different artists including Willie Nelson, Jerry Lee Lewis, and most of all Ray Price. Not long ago in a prestigious Nashville talent show, Jeff placed second out of 24 artists. Three of the songs from his album titled "my boots are out dancing again" placed in the top 5 on Airplay Internationals nationwide top 100 chart. Soon after that Nashville promoter, Charlie Ray launched a worldwide promotional package to 220 countries. As a result, Jeff has had great response from overseas radio markets. Jeff Craig has received several awards such as Airplay Internationals "TrailBlazer of the year", an award given to those who perform well, and stick to "traditional" style country music. He also recieved a "Certificate of Honorable Mention" from Billboard Magazine, for his songwriting work on "PAPER DREAM" off of his CD "MY BOOTS ARE OUT DANCING AGAIN".

Currently he is working on his first gospel album, titled "Infinite Love", while also putting the finishing touches on a brand new country album CD consisting entirely of his own material, ranging from TRADITIONAL COUNTRY, to WESTERN SWING, and uptempo NEW COUNTRY, which will be accompanied by new concept VIDEOS. The one and only J.J. did my makeup and hair for the photo shoot on my New album cover, she is so cool she used to do Ralph Emery's makeup when he was hosting the "Nashville Now" show!! she is so cool!!!. "I think he's got a good shot at it" says former Grand Old Opry Staff member, Carolyn Hollaran. Jeff acknowledges country music as the "True songs of the American Spirit".
