Related styles: WORLD: Persian contemporary, JAZZ: Crossover Jazz People who are interested in Oregon should consider this download. Details: John has found a beautiful balance in his life, as a builder, a furniture maker, a sculptor, a visionary, and as a musician. He has created and orchestrated a wonderful cd in this endeavor of love, music, nature and friendship. Housh as we call him, (like his father and all his uncles) has been strongly influenced by ECM recordings, Paul Winter, Oregon and Anouer Brahim to mention a few. He is a self-taught guitarist with a uniqueness of modal quality that's inspired through the various parts of the world he has lived and, from all the musics that have found him and all the musics that he has found in the astonishing world of experiencing creativity. His supporting cast is wonderfully conceived in the masterfulness of musicianship in, Billy Drewes, Scott Lee and Jamey Haddad and long time friend Jonathan Levi. There contribution is simply beautiful!. Michael Bocian
