An alternative 'country-rock' singer-songwriter, who writes catchy, intelligent songs with direct and disarming lyrics. 11 MP3 Songs COUNTRY: Americana, POP: Pop/Rock Show all album songs: Family Man Songs Details: A Bristolian who has served his time with the Blue Aeroplanes, McCrindles debut is a wry, unfussy album of acoustic Americana somewhere between Roger McGuinn and the backwoods gothic of Jim White that examines the relationship between family life and personal fulfilment. Its full of optimistic charm, bittersweet compromise and a warm tribute to his family. The songwriting is solid throughout. Only One Road is sinewy and simple, others like Work of Art are embellished with discreet African percussion, strings and a hotly cross small child demanding that dad puts down his guitar. Its a measure of his skill that Children, a heartfelt tribute to new priorities (Goodbye rock and roll) avoids being either twee or mawkish and instead is touching. Hes a big softy, really.
