My music style includes the creation of music that reflects true stories and events of the past, present, and future. It meant to bring comfort and relaxation while including a fusion of styles such as contemporary classical, pop, easy listening, and gos 13 MP3 Songs EASY LISTENING: Love Songs, POP: Piano Details: My music is a reflection of my life including the many events that I've experienced. I've lived and traveled from the ghettos of Chicago, the communist border of North Korea, the Philippine jungle, Japan, to the wonderful North West of the United States. I've studied ethnic music influenced by my experiences living in an African American Culture to classical music living in a predominantly Caucasian culture and studied with some of the best piano professors known. Celebration of Love In August of 2001, I had an opportunity I planned a year prior, to travel to Asia to perform my music. I had no idea that God would send me to the Philippines. Nor did I know about all the blessings that were in store for me there, including meeting my future bride, Liza. Prior to my visit, I wrote several songs about someone I had yet to meet. At the same time, I was hoping to complete a new album of songs. I had no idea where they would come from; not until I traveled to the Philippines, a beautiful country, where I met my true love, Liza, and, some of her closest friends, Manny and Scarlett. I want to thank Liza, Manny, and Scarlett for their encouragement to finish this project. Thanks also to my grandmother, Mother Phoebe, for helping me get started with my music; the Hannula Family who shared their piano and home, so I could write music; Jeremy Ryan for helping me to find a good piano to record on, and finally, thanks to the One who was, and is, and is to come, the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End!
