Laid back crunk party music with a taste of soul. 6 MP3 Songs HIP HOP/RAP: Rap, HIP HOP/RAP: Southern Style Details: "LAID BACK CRUNK WITH A TASTE OF SOUL THAT'S THE SOUND OF TRU KNIGHTZ" In today's rapidly growing music industry it is becoming extremely difficult for many music entertainers to make names for themselves. In the current hip hop world the saying, "only the strong survive" is what an artist must live by in order to make it big and have a successful career. An artist must have many skills and talents besides just being able to perform on stage and having a great image. An artist has to have an undeniable hunger and dedication to their craft and the members of Tru Knightz exemplify these characteristics and more. It is because of their love for music and desire to be a part of the industry that will insure their ticket into success. The following contains information on the members of Tru Knightz and their journey's that have brought them to become apart of the Tru Knightz Entertainment family and its successes. : Nawtshitous (Pronounced- Nauseous) - As the first edition of the Knightz Entertainment Label this rapper has an especially powerful reason for being in the music game. Here's Nawtshitous' story; "My desire and motivation for rapping starts way before I was born. On September 12th 1968 the world received my father who had been blessed with the gift of music. From what I have been told my father was making it in the industry. He had just scored a deal with a major record company and the first song off of his album was beginning to get air play. It was a very joyous time for my family, but all happiness ended in 1991 when my father was killed in a car accident. Everything my father left behind... his talents, ambitions, and projects all were left in history's past unfinished. Later on his death and the terrible tragedy of having his dreams unaccomplished became my motivation and my goal always. In the current rap industry I feel as though the positive components of rap are missing. I KNOW that I am the one that could show many out there how it is done without saying 'I'll kill you' in a verse. I'm not sure what other rap artist motivations are out there, I just know that there are many people surrounding my life who look up to me and want to see me make it in the game and so I'm not out here for me... Im doing this for the people who want to see me be successful Bone B-*** Bone B is probable the most enthusiastic and lovable member of Tru Knightz Ent. Read a little further to see why we think so.

Bone B birth name Jeremy Cloud aka Bone Bezzi. Bone has been rapping for at least eight years. Bones musical career is extremely important to him, so important that at this current point and time no one or nothing can stop him. Bone says, Nobody can distract me or knock my focus unless you take all the pencils, pens, and paper from me for the rest of my life and even then I still wouldnt stop. Bone doesnt even allow the distraction of a beautiful girl slow him down. Bone would like the money that can come from a successful musical career, but he mainly wants to be prominent and respected as not just a musical talent, but a strong black male. Bone believes failure is not an option for him because he along with his support system knows all that he is capable of accomplishing. Just like all young and aspiring youth out there today Bone aims to make the profits and decisions that will allow him to take care of his loved ones for a very long time. Bone feels above all his most important reason for choosing this career is that he knows he could not have possible been put on this earth to do anything besides what he is currently working on. Bone is aware that the journey will be a hard, tedious, and troubling one, however, says no greatness ever came from simplicity. *** Southern Bandit*** I Started at the age of 6 singing with the Georgia Mass Youth Choir in Atlanta Georgia. From there I started in church functions with my mother as she sang with the Rev James Cleveland Friendship Choir. : "By the time I was 11 I was able to play percussion set sing at the same time. I also had an audition with the legendard Mighty Clouds of Joy quaret when when I was 12, although they did not accept me I was strill inspired to keep on singing.I realized that I could sing hold my own at a concert at Friendship Baptist Church in Columbus Ga with the great Shirley Ceasar. I sung "Oh Happy Days " in front of about a 100 members in the congregation received a standing ovation. After moving place to place with my parents being in the military, I really knew than that I would have to find a place for my talent which in fact I sometimes forgot that I could sing. Until one day I met Da Shephard 6 years in the making he made me realize that I had once again forgotten about my hidden talent "SINGING". Something that I had always enjoyed doing. Da Shepard I both share a common ground of love for music having different sytle we created Tru- Knightz. We started out making beats at a friend of our house name Larry we would practice Da Shephard would freestyle write with his writing techniques and I would of course sing. That's when we first came up with our smash hit many unheard of called "Tru Friends". We started the group up under no management no support, but as years went by everyone started to see that we were not going to get up on our dream and we continued to stick together, we were very determined to make it work by any means necessary to become successful. With a great management team (GiGe), support from friend friends fans being to pore in . They have made us one of the most popular and liked underground groups in Atlanta . Looking at where we use to be to what we are now is only Gods doing .Through the rough times and the bad times we've always been able to pull through and come out on top . With the help of very gifted , exciting and talented members we will always put on a good show in front of our fans Forever Tru-knightz!!!!**** Headache born as David Young In the city of New Orleans, home of Jazz music and the New Orleans Saints one of my favorite teams. My first love was always sports such as football, basketball until at the tender age of five my dad pasted me a mic at a house party then said rap along with the music I did and I like it. After that watching my dad DJ parties freestyling with others Mc's I knew this was for me. When I moved to Atlanta the same year Hurricane Katrina hit my home town my dad put me in his group Tru Knightz and my goal now is to keep all of my fans dancing to all of my beats and putting out a #1 hit.
