War Prize Vonna Harper The warlike Malar have won. The Zebede are vanquished. The Zebede prince has no choice but to hand his youngest daughter Saarah over to the Warrior-God Dagen. Dagen, weary from years of fighting, takes possession of Saarah's lush young body. He will not abuse his captive, no Warrior-God would do such a thing. But he knows how to reach through her defenses and will teach her to revere and honor him. Saarah, however, is no passive prisoner. Passionate and strong-willed, she has needs that won't be denied. As lust turns to passion and passion turns to intimacy, Dagen and Saarah begin the tentative steps of a journey neither expected to travel, sharing parts of themselves they'd never expected to reveal.
