No two affiliates are exactly alike! "If You Are Currently Using Or Plan On Using Affiliates To Market Your Products Or Services, Then Open Your Eyes and Your Mind With This Report!" Different Affiliates Have Different Needs, So Be Sure To Meet Each Of Them. Inside this report you'll discover every type of promotional material that should be provided for affiliates and ways to use them. You will learn... *Which graphics fit the bill! Why a couple banners and buttons won't cut it! *Why Audios and Videos are a must! Turn your affiliates into multi-media machines! *The most underutilized real estate space! Simply re-naming a file can mean more sales! And much much more... This report is for anyone that's doing business online and is currently using or plans on using affiliates to promote their products or services. No matter which niche they're in. Since no two people are exactly alike, it just makes sense to assume that your affiliates will have different wants and needs when it comes to promotional methods and materials. Even if you had only two affiliates, the odds of both of them having the same outlook and ideals would be extremely low. So why is it that most product owners provide their affiliates with only a couple different types of promotional materials? And even worse yet, why do they usually provide them with only one or two ways to use them? As an online business owner, running your own affiliate program, you should always keep this one thing in mind: Provide your affiliates with as many different ways to promote your products as possible.
