Details: CYGNOTIC REALM Creation of Synthetic Lifeforms myspace.com/cygnoticrealm cygnotic.com CYGNOTIC REALM is a german electronic project reigned by Markus Lindwurm that combines transfigured atmospheres with a passion for melodic ambient layers as well as sequencerorientated trance beats. Screaming Nordlead-sounds from dark corridors will meet with dreamlike patterns. The trancelike, transcendental and ambient parts will be reflected by the mostly melodic driven pulsating Cygnotic structures. Bright Dreams and Gloomy Moods will walk side-by-side in these synthetic lifeforms. A unique mixture of Epic-Trance and Ambient-Chillout. The first album 'Wavelengths Of Mental Transcendence' is divided in dualistic poles with the intension to balance the mind into one single sphere. The drum- and bassline-orientated PULSATING SPHERES, where more sullen moods of inner catharsis are processed, are transcendental contrasted by the CHILLING FIELDS, where melancholic harmonies for contemplation are incarnated. "The whole physical reality is formed from geometric harmonies. The harmonic relationship of elements, temperature, light, sound and electrical frequencies is resulting in transformation of mind and matter ... if only all the factors necessary to cause the reactions are vibrating in resonance ... created by wavelengths of mental transcendence" ----- After a long haul from the 1998 Wavelengths-Album CYGNOTIC REALM is about to release his new album 'REFLECTIONS FROM THE FUTURE' (Erinnerungen an die Zukunft). The new album shows a clear progress in synthetic structures. The influences of Jean-Michel and Tangerine Dream are more visible bringing them from the golden analog era to a new mixed up form for this platinum millenium.
