Details: Mansions Of Gold is the title of the new album from Eamonn Dowd The Racketeers. A raw rootsy affair - 11 new songs including the singles Women Around Here, 45 and Sweet Angel. It rocks , it rolls and it exists in a world all of its own. Youd get the impression that these guys dont give a damn about trends, radio play or commercial success. And youd be right ! On this collection, Dowd lets rip on electric guitar, producing walls of feedback. Lyrically it takes you someplace else, another world, another time, and throughout, Les Keye and Chris Teusner hold down the beat. And then theres the plaintive ballads augmented by organ, banjo and saxophone. Since the mid 90s Irish man Dowd has fronted The Racketeers as they brought their fiery brand of americana / rock n roll to audiences throughout Europe, releasing four albums along the way. In recent years Eamonn has also toured in a solo / acoustic capacity, blazing a trail through Germany, The Netherlands, Belgium, the Baltics, USA and Canada. Produced by Les Keye, this new album is released on Berlin based label Cannary Row Records. theracketeers.com myspace.com/theracketeersireland downloadmusic.ie/eamonndowdandtheracketeers
