

Mp3 Eddie Cunningham - Country: Country Rock

DOWNLOAD HERE

Country Western Americana...This Los Angeles Singer / Songwriter's first solo CD, features The CCMA "Male Vocalist Of The Year" "Songwriter Of The Year" song, "TIL MY THIRST FOR YOU IS GONE" and includes his JIM BEAM COUNTRY BAND SEARCH winning set. 10 MP3 Songs COUNTRY: Country Rock, GOSPEL: Country Gospel Details: Former lead singer/songwriter and founder of Atlantic Records alternative Rock/Country group "Cowboys Indians" 1987-90. A&R Rep Keith Cowan got an unsolicited tape in the mail from Eddie, a 4 song home studio recording of the band. Keith wanted to see them "live" so he set up a private showcase in Hollywood. They were signed on the spot and recorded at least two albums worth of American Indian Tribal rock songs and Country rock/ballads. They Played gigs around town with "The Unforgivin"(the pioneers of the spaghetti western craze in Hollywood). While honing his writing skills playing the Los Angeles songwriters circuit, and visiting the famous Palomino club in North Hollywood he ran into many songwriters including Jim Lauderdale, Jeffrey Steele (Boy Howdy), Monty Byrom (Big House), Dale Watson, Rosie Flores, the Blasters, Dwight Yoakam and others. Eddie's former lead guitarist of a previous country rock band (favorites on the san Diego music scene "The Amber Band") Danny Pinnella, told Betty Rosen at Michael Douglas's label, Third Stone Records, about Eddie and was offered a publishing contract with Third Stone/Warner Chappell. Eddie has songs recorded by Ben E. King, Gram Parsons Notebook, Moe Bandy, Chris Darrow, Mark Insley, Todd Fritsch, Michael Mandella, Jenny Slate, Pete Martinez and has written with some of the best in the industry including Jeffrey Steele, Wendy Waldman, Desmond Child, A.L."Doodle" Owens, Kostas and many others. He was named the "Songwriter of the Year" and "Male vocalist of the Year" by the California Country Music Association and was named the "Best Unsigned" Country artists in America by becoming the Grand-Prize Winner in the Jim Beam Country Band Search at the Wildhorse Saloon in Nashville where he performed in front of a packed house with Montgomery Gentry filmed for CMT. Eddie Topped the Americana charts with two songs featured on the Gram Parsons Tribute CD a legendary, history making Grammy worthy project on Shellpoint Records. Eddie is singing a power gospel song called "Jesus Is More Than a Name", which he co-wrote with Gram Parsons through his notebook. He also co-produced the song with Grammy Award winner Carl Jackson. *The album was nominated for 3 Grammy nominations and also includes Ricky Skaggs, Marty Stuart, Jim Lauderdale, The Elvis Band, Larry Cordle, Lona Heins, Leslie Satcher, Mike Ward, Eddie Dunbar The Woody's. Currently Eddie's new venture is "Jukebox California" a film/ Documentary/mesh of pioneer types songwriters from the inland empire brought together to appear as themselves, writing songs and performing together the likes of Chris Darrow, John York, Patrick Brayer, Big Orange Backyard Ramblers, by Legendary Record Producer (the original mayor of the sunset strip) Kim Fowley, Eddie stars in the movie and has several songs.. A DVD and CD will follow the release of the movie. It's already creating quite a buzz in England and France where Kim has been hanging out lately and guest hosting on Little Steven's radio show "Under Ground Garage" in New York and L.A.

DOWNLOAD HERE

Similar manuals: