Mellow out with these evocative and tantalising songs that hit the spot with memorable yet slightly quirky melodies. This album hints of pop ballad/musical theatre and filmic styles. Kates' piano/vocal numbers plus other instrumentalists are quite unique 10 MP3 Songs EASY LISTENING: Mood Music, EASY LISTENING: Mature Details: kate Shortt is a cellist and singer/songwriter who has been writing since around 1974 (8 years of age!) This album is a culmination of some of her work which ranges from 1992 up until 2006. The tracks are arranged for varying instruments and are more indie than mainstream, (though one or two tracks may fit the description of mainstream). The songs are mainly true stories...(one or two are conceptual) Kate trained at Guildhall School of Music and Drama in cello and second study singing, during which time she developed new ideas for songwriting. She has performed her own show 'shortt and sweett' singing her material from 1990 onwards, throughout london fringe venues and varying festivals including Edinburgh and Brighton. Kate already has 3 more albums in her head! (so watch this space) : )
