Born in Montreal of Italian origin, Luisa has been singing since the age of 14. With the help of her father's orchestra, she discovers a passion for music and decides to make a career as a singer. Performing hundreds of shows in clubs all across Canada she is showing us the diversity of her talent by participating in the musical "The Rocky Horror Show" as Magenta for the third year in a row and also recently performed her first theatrical production in William Shakespeares "MacBeth" as Banquo. Her debut album "The Devilish Grin" includes chart toppers "I Wanna Be the One" and "All About Me". Her second album, released in November 2004 entitled "Farfalla" (butterfly in Italian) includes her renditions of "Ti Amo", "A far l'amore comincia tu" and "Cinque Tre (53 53 456)". Provocative, sexy and talented, Luisa will never stop surprising you, she is definitely a scene stealer. ABOUT THIS ALBUM - The Devilish Grin: It took longer than expected, but the culmination of over 7 years of dedication is finally going public with the splendid The Devilish Grin debut album for Canadas newest Pop/Dance Italian sensation Luisa Pepe. She has spent countless hours in the studio working with top Canadian and American artists to create a world class album. The musical expertise of producers/songwriters Michael Abatzidis (Jacynthe, Fruit de la Passion) and Vincent Degiorgio (NSYNC, Love Inc., Kristine W), songwriter Katiuscia Cantaluppi, and songwriter/composer/singer Crystal Waters (Gypsy Woman (Shes Homeless) and 100 Pure Love) are all featured on this new recording. Twelve tracks solid from the beginning to the end demonstrating the diversity of her talent. Luisa Pepe has been in the industry for quite some time now. You might remember her for Groovejet (If This Aint Love), a fabulous mix of disco and house which reached the top 5 across Canada and have been on several compilations such as MC Marios Mixdown 2001 and, most recently, Club Mix USA. Early indications show that Luisa Pepe is a Pop/Dance vocalist comparable to the best in the world! She will amaze you with her exceptionally strong voice, Latin look and natural flare. How could you resist to this enigmatic smile and this ambivalent look deeply mysterious? Youll be bewitched by her Devilish Grin! ORDER IT NOW, YOU WON'T REGRET!
