Details: Purple Crown (Tajh) is a member of universal group "The Suns". Earlier in their career they were known as Motown recording artist "The Boys", a child group of four African American brothers who enchanted the world with their youthful charm, singing and dancing abilities, and back flips (acrobatics). They enjoyed multi-platinum success, world wide recognition, and honors. The Boys recorded three albums with Motown and then suddenly vanished. Purple Crown has a universal sound incorporating elements of soul, hip-hop, roots reggae, blended with sweet melodies, and socially conscious, energetic hip-hop rhymes. Worlds Most Wanted is a compilation of previously un-released music by "The Suns" and their musical friends. This compilation takes you on a journey highlighting the experience of young musicians exploring self awareness, climate change, love, and life. Purple Crown gives the listener a truly exciting and diverse musical experience. 1 Love!!!
