Acoustic Rock 10 MP3 Songs FOLK: Modern Folk, ROCK: Acoustic Details: Born and raised on Long Island, NY, Rebecca has been singing in various groups and choirs all her life. She has played the piano since age six. After moving to Syracuse in 1996, she picked up the guitar and began a new chapter in her musical life. With a folk/acoustic rock sound, Rebecca writes and sings her own material accompanying herself on guitar or piano. Although she adores sappy love songs, Rebecca is also a writer of sci-fi/fantasy stories and interweaves those elements into much of her music. She is currently living in Albany with her family and attending SUNY Albany. Her dream is to become a librarian by day and rock star by night. "Angel, who only began gigging in public at the end of 2005, is a natural. Her voice has a unique tone and texture that, for once, doesn't sound like an imitation of Fiona, Joni, or Sarah (although her songs will certainly appeal to their fans). Her stage persona is reminiscent of Ani DiFranco: Angel's strong facial features and her expressive gestures allow her to animate fantasy realms on stage, giving a theatrical quality to her performance. Even among national touring acts, I've only seen a handful that can inhabit their songs as fully as Angel does. Highly recommended listening for those with robust imaginations or those who take their responsibilities a little too seriously." Dan Barry: The Hartford Advocate, Conn.
