It's an instrumental (mostly) piece, made up of 10 tracks. Though it is Electronic music, many live instruments were used such as, piano, guitar, flutes, drums etc... The intention was to produce something organic and emotional using acoustic, analog digital techniques. All throughout the album - one can feel the big influence of world and folk music from around the globe. Yair Kass has been playing music since the age of 5. Instruments ranging from the usual - piano, guitar, bass guitar etc... to the less common - oriental flutes and percussion instruments. All during those years, he has kept a close touch with the digital world of synthesizers and computer based music. In 1994, together with Gilad kahana, he founded the band Giraffes and after two successful albums, Giraffes has a big following and success in Israel. Yair has also worked with other artists as a musical producer and recording engineer, working in his home studio.
