Thats pretty good considering hes NEVER taken a marketing class or started a business in his life! How was he able to build a million dollar business despite being a broke college student? Very simple. Determination. The determination to do what most people would believe is impossible no matter what the cost. And that's Russell's answer to the bad US economy: determination to improve his business so it becomes "recession-proof". This is something VERY few businesses know how to do and Russell does it perfectly! How do I know? Because He Increased His Income From 3.1 Million In 2007 To 5.7 Million in 2008 While Other Businesses Were Closing Up Shop! You see, to Russell, there's no such thing as a bad economy. And Russell proved it in his business and in a special couple podcasts where Russell revealed his secrets to boosting his profits despite a sorry economy. To him, it didn't matter: * Whether the President was going to pass the latest stimulus or bailout bill * Whether or not banks were lending money to people * If credit card companies are EVER going to let people open new accounts * If unemployment skyrocketed and people were going to be lining up the streets homeless Because he was too busy cashing checks! Believe it or not (despite his employees begging him NOT to reveal these secrets) Russell decided it was time to tell the truth about the economy. He got tired of all the "doom and gloom" most people preach on the news and decided to do something about it! So he recorded a series of podcasts where Russell laid down law regarding how to profit in today's economy.
