The voice - the first sacred instrument. "EN FULL CIRCLE -- A Shamanic Journey" is not just beautiful music -- it is an experience that deepens with every listening. The music is charged with an energy that facilitates a journey into your own inner realms, where visual memory and emotion intertwine. Aleah Long seems to access the Akashic record -- the universal core of memory -- in the same way that "Earth, Wind and Fire" did in the 1970's, inviting us all to dance in spirals, open to the journey and soar. This music is new-age, kemetite trance/dance, born out of experiences with plant medicine/teachers from the Amazonian rainforest. It unfurls, taking you into deeper and deeper levels of communication -- it is sensual, it is transforming. Consider this music positive medicine for Gaia - Planet Earth! Aleah Long is a visionary singer-songwriter, performer and teacher who lives in the Mid-Hudson Valley of New York State. The exploration of sound vibration as a healing force, breath, and recovering one's original voice/power/soul has been a passion for many years. She has studied with teachers from different tradition, but firmly believes in gnosis -- the soul resonates with truth.
