Produced by the legendary Eric "Roscoe" Ambel. If you are into cave tools--the basic elements of rock roll; bass, drums and guitar, you'll love this album. 10 MP3 Songs ROCK: Roots Rock, ROCK: Modern Rock Details: "This is Lynrd Skynrd revived. This is southern rock with a hint of indie, definitely a new age kind of music. Songs such as 'No News' and 'Feelin Good Blues' take us back to when cowpunks roamed the nation. For people who can't stand country but love classic rock, here's a happy medium." Review by Nicole Volpicelli of The Circle Magazine. OUR LATEST... Dennis Feeney is a bassist, songwriter and singer who crafts rock, country and jazz. "Boots Belts Irons" is Feeney's first album produced by Eric 'Roscoe' Ambel (of Steve Earle, and the Yayhoos). The album was recorded at Colorado Sound Studios in Westminster, Colorado and at Cowboy Technical Services in Brooklyn, New York. Tim Hatfield, Lorne Bregitzer and Greg Duffin engineered it. The Den Dogs have played gigs from Wyoming to New York City's famed Lakeside Lounge in the East Village. Read further to find out more about the guys on the "Boots, Belts, Irons" recording... DAVID EISENHAUER - Guitar and voice Guitarist David Eisenhower is a Laramie native who grew up in the Washington D.C. area and in Florida. David has played professionally for more than 20 years, and cites Jesse Ed Davis, Ry Cooder, and the Kings (B.B., Albert, and Freddie) among his influences. He has a fondness for Fender Telecasters and American "roots" music -- from Robert Johnson to John Hiatt to Son Volt. ARIC HAGEMAN - Drums Drummer Aric Hageman was born in Breckenridge, Minnesota. He attends Kansas State University where he is getting his masters degree in Music. Someday, he would like to earn a doctorate. His influences are Carter Beauford, Mike Portnoy, and Travis Baker. He uses Yamaha Beech Custom drums and Zildjian cymbals. DENNIS FEENEY - Electric bass, voice, songwriting Bassist Dennis Feeney was born in Kansas City and did most of his growing up in Laramie. Dennis started writing songs and playing in bands in the sixth grade right after hearing Eric Ambel's band, The Dirty Dogs. His musical influences range from the early punks, to classic country artists and the jazz greats. Dennis plays Stonetree, Rickenbacker and Carvin basses through Ampeg and Ashdown bass amps.
