The best of Electronic Dance Music. India's first Electronic Dance Live act fuses genres to create 'Onepointnothing' 12 MP3 Songs in this album (70:36) ! Related styles: ELECTRONIC: Techno, ELECTRONIC: Tech-House People who are interested in The Chemical Brothers Underworld should consider this download. Details: Jalebee Cartel has challenged the notion that dance music is a Western domain by single-handedly putting India on the international EDM map. Composed of four members, Arjun Vagale (laptop, mixing and scratching), Ashvin Mani Sharma (laptop and synths), Ash Roy (vocals and percussions) and G-force Arjun (bass/synth-lines), Jalebee has been taking India by storm for over three years. From individual DJ sets to collective live gigs, producing to composing, the multi-talented group pretty much does it all. And the quality is evident from the international interest it's amassing. ONEPOINTNOTHING is the sound of Jalebee Cartel mixing up genres in a 72-minute trip that rewires the future and contorts the past. With a short, sharp and brutal declaration of intent, Jalebee Cartel still underground after all these years chases the dream of putting India on the world electronic dance map. Each member of this four-piece band brings his unique sound to the Cartel, remarkably shown in Mirrors, a unique blend of heavy guitar riffs, bouncy basslines and twisted melodies. The band's explosive live set has amassed a huge fan following, both in India and internationally. Midnite Madness, a high-energy percussion driven track, is a tribute to these fans. Jalebee Cartel has never shied away from challenging innovations. Their music video of Tough Cookie is a classic example of this. Peaking at #4 on the VH1 music video charts, it was an obvious addition to the album. Jalebee salutes the likes of Pink Floyd, Depeche Mode and Underworld with Dark Shadows, a club anthem with old school synths, guitars and vocals. The band defines their new sound with Apartment 88, a funky tech-house tune, and A Crazy Virus on Akerstraat, a peak-time techno monster.
