Texas alternative a cross between Austin TX and Seattle Washington, acoustic slide and chunky guitars, with guitar leads (yes guitar leads), and melodic songs that will lure you in and HOOK YOU 13 MP3 Songs ROCK: Modern Rock, ROCK: Hard Rock Details: Joe Burns was born in Buffalo, NY and started playing guitar as a young teen. He had found his passion. Inspired by the sounds of Jimi Hendrix, Van Halen, Robin Trower, Frank Marino, Santana, Randy Rhoads, and Stevie Ray Vaughn, Joe became focused - exerting all his time and effort into learning his craft and molding himself into what he's become today - a talented and articulate singer/songwriter... Joe has had the opportunity to travel the world extensively (via U.S.M.C.) and in doing so, has been witness to many talented bands and guitar players. These experiences have left him with a wide background of influences as well as inspirations. Burns was later discovered by booking agency, "Starstruck Productions", in New York. The agency set about booking him with several bands. They played throughout New York, Pennsylvania, New England, and Canada. The young musician found himself opening shows for such legends as Molly Hatchet and Kansas, playing as many as 24 shows within 30 days. Joe then made a move to Texas, where he continued performing, but with a new band in his new home. It was at this point in his career when he decided to dedicate all his time to writing and recording his own music. The "Road Runner" CD (released in 2003) is Joe's first contribution to us from his musical journey. His NEW RELEASE (December 2004), entitled "Things Ain't What They Seem", showcases the many voices of Joe Burns and proves his songwriting talents to be quite genuine and ever-evolving.
