ROCK: Acoustic, FOLK: Folk Pop Details: Rock music created with folk and pop sensibilities, Josh Aran is a singer/songwriter whose songs lodge themselves somewhere inside you with a sense of immediacy and a lingering hook. Josh Aran - vocals, guitars, bass, piano, B3 organ Reviews "Josh Aran wants you to listen to him. But he's not going to get up in your face about it or anything. He doesn't have to. His whole album [Sun Up] is very quiet and beautiful and understated ... It sucks you in, little by little, until you can't remember your name or where you came from or anything but the drone-dream voicings and lyrical otherworld of the current track. It's disarming and charming and even a little bit infectious." 3 out of 4 stars
