A regular on television shows such as Bandstand and also hosted Six O'clock Rock for one season. He also made regular appearances on Mavis Bramston Revue 6061 In Melbourne Tonight, Sing Sing Sing, plus many other entertainment shows. In 1962 Lucky recorded a hit record Ive Been Everywhere, which to date still remains one of Australias all time favourites. The record received the highest accolade in the music industry, the Platinum Award. 1963 saw Lucky performing in the United States on the Nevada Circuit, The Flamingo in Las Vegas, The Mapes in Reno and Harveys in Lake Tahoe. Also in the same year Lucky signed a recording contract with Dot Records in Los Angeles, releasing five singles. His agency was Coast Artist, signing performers such as Harry Belafonte, Jimmy Rodgers and Billy Eckstein. As a result of his American trips, Lucky was invited to work the Hilton Hotel Chain world wide spending several years working these prestigious rooms. Lucky was also the first Australian performer to entertain the troops in Vietnam; in fact paying his own way there and made five subsequent trips into the war zone. 2002 and 2003 saw Lucky touring with Long Way To The Top, an Arena Spectacular which toured Australias capitals and regional centres. The show featured the cream of Australias entertainers from the 50s, 60s and 70s. Due to its popularity it become the subject of an ABC Television special. Luckys style ranges from Rock Roll, to Country through to Jazz and is in fact similar to the late great Bobby Darin. These days his polished performing style has him working full time in the business he loves.
