Evokes feelings that lurk between the lines while embracing thought provoking lyrics that tell it like it is. On a colorful tapestry of catchy mixed genre rhythms, the songs draw you in and take you on an extraordinary ride. 14 MP3 Songs ROCK: Americana, FOLK: like Joni Details: An experienced performer, Marge worked in various bands and acoustic groups before leading her own group. Having performed in Presidential Inaugural festivities, she's appeared on national television as well as numerous radio programs along the Mid-Atlantic seaboard. Evolving as a performing songwriter in her own right with kudos from both press and peers, she's garnered accolades from the Washington Area Music Association and the Songwriter's Association of Washington. She's collaborated with songwriters such as Fred Koller, Marcus Hummon, and Tom Paxton. As a result, her songs brought her to such venues as the Bottom Line in NYC, the Bluebird Cafe in Nashville, and the Barns at Wolftrap. She has appeared with artists as varied as 10,000 Maniacs, Buck Owens, Richie Havens, and James Taylor. "Calhoun is intent on developing her own identity as a singer/songwriter come hit or high water." -The Washington Post "Sometimes it seems that half the acts go with the flow while the other half go with what they know. Marge Calhoun joins the better half." -The Washington Post
