Details: Michele Jusko's passion for singing and songwriting started at the ripe old age of seven, in a little apartment in Queens, New York, when she wrote her first original song "Another Peanut Butter Love Song." Micheles adoration for peanut butter was poetically expressed in her first song. It's as if another John Lennon or Joni Mitchell was born. Today, Michele's love for music is just as strong, however, her songwriting inspiration has ventured a little past her peanut butter obsession. Her debut album "The Great Unknown" is a unique collection of soulful, Pop/Rock Adult Contemporary songs with unforgettable, catchy melodies and thought provoking lyrics. Her songwriting reaches deep and engages listeners from all walks of life. Michele Jusko's music has already received critical acclaim from fans and industry supporters alike. Her original song Beautiful Neurosis(from her first EP of the same title) was featured in the CBS TV series Shark starring James Woods. Michele's ballad Walk Away was a runner-up in the John Lennon Songwriting contest and is featured in the indie film "Vacuuming the Cat" starring Barbara Hershey. In 2008, Michele was a featured artist on XM Satellite Radio's prestigious Radar Report and was the coveted "Staff Pick" out of thousands of unsigned artists for Clear Channel New Music.
