At the age of 14 his father died, which proceeded to make him take it extremely hard, and also left him with only 5 sisters and a mother. He started living "the streets", and eventually fell a victim to those same measures by being sentenced to 10 years at Louisiana State Angola Penitentiary in 1995 for murder which was later dropped to a manslaughter charge. He was released in 2000 at which point he met up with the founder and C.E.O. of FLATLINE CORPORATE, a man, well known as "Tweedy". Instantly these two individuals had a bond, and together dropped 2 as of now unreleased albums in short period of 2.5 weeks time. During that time he was arrested again, and now that violation had sent him back to jail. In 2003 he was released, and at the finish line of his highly debut album "Death after Reception" May/2004 he was again violated for a third round. His now anticipated prison release was scheduled for July/01-2005, but now Oct/14-2005 @ W.C.I in Angie, La. cause of good time taken for threats to prison guards. *His highly-debuted album "Death after Reception" is now on the streets and 4 more albums that were recorded in 2004 that are SOON to be distributed. All SONGS ARE 1 TAKES *Email Omega Fairazono Fan Club: ALL SONGS ARE REAL STORIES.
