SLOTH picks up where GREED left off. All they ever wanted was money, and some of them just wanted something to do. But the rich young men find their backs against the wall, and occasionally or on the floor. Seems that rich is more complicated than poor, especially when a top-secret scientific research laboratory gets involved with the boozing twentysomethings who have more money than sense. Oh, thou one great eyes in the shadows; something that shouldn't exist, except in folk tales, legends and ancient history. In the shadows of gothic gloom and velvet clothing, the weird will rage from the shadows to challenge their sanity. The prize is more than money and normal becomes abnormal. But then, he rarely got off the couch anyway.
