Lyrics Lift up your head and don't be so sad. The day is beginning and the year is your friend! With all that you've seen, All that you've done, Often you thought you'd failed; But God says you've won! Your victory is here In the eyes of your children. So let us dry your tears, There's something you should hear; Chorus: Thank you for being fair. Thank you, I'm so glad you care! Thank you! I know it was hard, But I'm grateful for your love. Time marches on And there were days you didn't feel so strong. Still you rose and shined like the sun! Many times we'd lie And made you cry, Did things we knew we shouldn't do And tried to hide them from your sight. Then we'd see your face And we knew it was alright. We'd melt before your smile And glow within your light. Everyone who has ever done anything significant for me in my life has been a woman, and this song is my tribute for all women or goddesses, no matter what anyone thinks. There is a God, and there IS a Goddess (they just don't have our issues!) . To anyone out there who has ever done anything kind, who has reached out to help another, this is my way of saying thank you...
