"A GREAT READ!" ~SCIFI GUY When Melody falls in love with Michael, a psychic, he gives her an ancient manuscript to read that seems to suggest he is a centuries old former-knight who sold his soul to the demon Asmodeus for immortality. But when she asks, "Are you really a thousand-year-old sorcerer?" he evades the question, and tells her a plausible story which cannot be verified. Then, Michael implores Melody to marry him, and despite her doubts, she cannot resist his hypnotic eyes, and agrees to become his bride. For the first time Melody knows what passion can be. On Halloween night, Michel wakes Melody to go out in the woods where a second pagan marriage is performed, and they dance naked in the moonlight. A few days later, when Michael is out of town, his friend Morgaine, whose name also appeared in the manuscript, tells Melody's with Tarot cards -- and sees something in the cards that sends her screaming from the room. When Melody presses Michael for answers, he finally admits that he is the knight described in the ancient manuscript, and that the demon Asmodeus is coming to claim his soul on Halloween night (the witch's new year). He wants to renounced The pair decides to face the demon with their newfound love for each other. But, unknown to both, Morgaine, who was Michael's lover in ancient times, and is still in love with him, has conceived a diabolical plan to trick Asmodeus into taking Melody's soul instead. Here is what one reviewer had to say about Morgaine and Michael, the first book in the Morgaine chronicles, "A great read," raved Scifi Guy on Fictionwise.com. It has everything, interesting characters, high fantasy, gothic suspense, witches, sorcerers, hi-tech. A mixture of the modern with the medieval. A real page turner. I can't wait until the next book in the series comes out." The wait is over. Rated Mature. Some sexual content.
