Don't miss this unique blend of sizzling contemporary praise and worship music featuring styles from rock and ballad, to latin and blues. 12 MP3 Songs GOSPEL: Contemporary Gospel, ROCK: 70's Rock Details: Rhythm of God represents a unique twist in the realm of contemporary Christian music, blending a Sunday morning service with sizzling rock and roll and inspirational easy listening. Children, young adults, and people of all ages find favorite songs among the great variety bursting from within this album. Raised in Madison, WI, Aaron Netsell has been writing and arranging music for 20 years. The author of all 12 tracks on Rhythm of God, Netsell personally played and recorded several of the instruments on CD. Often compared to artists such as Santana and Michael W. Smith, with the occasional dual guitar lead a la Boston, Netsell's work on Rhythm of God will surely delight any listener. Originally recorded with brilliant 18-bit clarity, Rhythm of God is the second CD released by Aaron Netsell and Scott Waltz at Crystal Valley Church in Cary, Illinois. This dynamic duo fully recorded and mixed the 12-song album one track at a time in their home studio, "Little Scotty's Studio". Mastered in Chicago at Planet Sounds. Check out Aaron's acoustic and electric blues CD under the name "Eye in Queue" also available from CD Baby.
