

Mp3 Chameleon Brass - Colours Of Christmas

DOWNLOAD HERE

Londons most versatile brass quintet return with a diverse selection of pieces for the holiday season. 11 MP3 Songs CLASSICAL: Brass quintet, CLASSICAL: Traditional Show all album songs: Colours of Christmas Songs Details: Chameleon brass is a vibrant and most entertaining brass quintet. Based around the London area the group has performed in many major concert venues throughout the UK. The group have accompanied the BBC singers and also appeared live on BBC television. Individually the members of the group are all well respected freelance players and have appeared with the Royal Philharmonic Orchestra, English National Opera, The Royal Opera House, London Concert Orchestra, The National Symphony Orchestra and the Glen Miller Big Band (Europe) The Members are; Giles Fowler (1st Trumpet), Matthew Wells (2nd Trumpet), Ian Stott (French Horn) Steve Thompson (Trombone) and Richard Fox (Tuba) Colors of Christmas Chameleon Brass present their new CD for the festive season. Containing a diverse collection of tracks often heard over the Christmas period, some familiar, some less well known. This CD includes some new arrangements never before heard, including two tunes from Lieutenant Kije by Prokofieff including the famous Troika'. Also of note is a beautiful rendition of the traditional carol, Infant Holy, Infant lowly arranged by Roger Harvey as a flugel horn solo, and played masterfully by Matthew Wells. Another Harvey arrangement on the disc is striking version of the Coventry Carol A bonus track on the CD is a new version of the 'Canzon Due A Decimi Toni a 10' by Giovanni Gabrieli, arranged by the groups trombonist Steve Thompson. Taken from the groups digital only single 'Canzon', this is the first time this arrangement can be heard on CD. For more information visit; chameleonbrass.com and colors-of-christmas.com

DOWNLOAD HERE

Similar manuals:

MP3 In Color - In Color \(the Lamp Album\)