Details: Doc Bonhomie is a group based out of Johnson City, TN, who have a love for all types of music. With acoustic instrumentation, songwriting and harmony at the core, their songs explore the idealism and the fall of love, morality of man and the overwhelming importance of friendship in every day life. A sense of journey can be found in both their original material (How Good it Feels), as well as their interpretations of traditional songs (Bye and Bye, Michael). Influences stem from from trees such as The Allman Brothers Band knack for dual guitar leads to Bob Dylan's "Don't ask Twice" to Simon and Garfunkel's/The Eagles harmonies to Tim O'brien's talent for true americana music. Both easy to listen to and thought provoking, it's definitely worth checking out.
