Details: 22 Year old Drew Gasparini is an accomplished multi-instrumentalist, an award winning singer/songwriter, and an acclaimed composer who was born and raised in the Bay Area. His songwriting and performing lead him to Los Angeles to pursue an education and career in music. Over the last 3 years he has played over 250 shows. His blend of rapid paced singing and percussive strum patterns on the guitar caught the ears and eyes of many new fans in Southern California, and his song If You Walked Away from his first release Small Thoughts was frequently played on indie radio stations, college radio stations all over the country, and online radio stations such as NowInLA.com. His voice has been described as startlingly crisp, and in January 2006, he was dubbed Best New Sound in Hollywood 2006 by S.I. Magazine. After that and the release of his first EP, Small Thoughts, he was on LA Weeklys new comers list, and Independentmusic.nets artist of the month. He has shared the stage with such acts as Bay Areas own Austin Willacy, Broadways Matt Caplan, the Elevaters, Grammy nominated artists the Plain White Ts, and Jason Mraz. His live performance is nothing short of mesmerizing; keeping the audience captivated and including them as if they were part of his band, Gasparinis shows never disappoint ticket buyers. Drews love of the arts has also lead him on many other music related endeavors. His most recent was a surprise success called, Crazy, Just Like Me. A musical, the book, music, and lyrics of which were all written by Gasparini. Since its debut performance in the Bay Area, Crazy has become an underground success in NYC. Selections of the show have been performed for benefits in New York, Song cycles, workshops, and recently its original cast members were acknowledged with an award for Best Dramatic Scene from the Marin Theatre Company for their interpretation of a scene from the show. With his two solo releases (2006's "Small Thoughts" and 2008's "Overboard"), and his own musical for the stage, Drew finds himself still finding new ways to write and perform. Tags: pop
