One woman's journey through the despair and ultimate redemption of heart-break. It's catchy as hell. 5 MP3 Songs POP: Quirky, ROCK: Acoustic Details: Native New Yorker Jamie Stellini has been writing songs and playing them for audiences all over the country for the better part of the last 10 years. In the spring of 1999, she followed her muse down to New Orleans, where she quickly landed an apprenticeship on piano with blues legend Eddie Bo, a lucrative spot on Decatur Street in the daunting French Quarter street scene and a band with bass player Peter Vee of Papa Grows Funk. After leaving New Orleans in 2002 and chasing down inspiration all over the U.S. (from South Florida to Salt Lake City) Jamie returned to her hometown in 2004 to finally record her debut EP the Difference. In 2005 she found time to play bass for the Darlings, a NYC band fronted by Jason Darling, while honing her solo act at clubs throughout NYC. Her stunning presence on stage and gripping, honest songwriting have left music-goers far and wide smitten.
