R&B, Hip-Hop, Vintage, New School 11 MP3 Songs URBAN/R&B: Traditional R&B, URBAN/R&B: R&B Rap mix Details: The ambitious up and coming R&B star Lafonda, aka the "Bronx Bombshell" continues to bless music listeners with her new album, titled "Go Hard Or Go Home". It's an exciting 8 song collection of her original songs formatted in "mixtape" style. The album is hosted by one of the most talented hardworking DJs in New York, DJ Bedtyme 357 who is also the official DJ of the Bronx female rap artist, Remy Ma. The title "Go Hard Or Go Home" is a reflection of Lafonda's work ethic when it comes to making a name for herself as a recording artist. The music is exclusively produced and co-written by producer Plaboy-Chi of Sleepless Productionz. The album features her smash single "Ooh Ahh" which she performed on B.E.T.'s 106 Park in April 2007, its also the song that won her Best R&B Female at the NYC Underground Music Awards. It also features the edgy big drummed-hard guitar street banga, "Built Like That", a song telling the fellas about how it takes more than material things to impress a real woman, then on the song "Coat Tails", Lafonda talks about how up and coming female artists should stand on their own two feet and not ride on other peoples coat tails to become famous. Creatively this album gives a taste of Lafonda's vocal ability along with a great marriage of lyrics and beats, breeding great songs for the radio, the club, the car, etc. All you have to do is press play.....
