Grammy Nominated Album..Hawaiian Slack Key Guitar, This Music for your souls. Listen to his magic fingers at work. 14 MP3 Songs FOLK: Traditional Folk, FOLK: Folk Pop Details: Over the last 25 years, it has been a privilege knowing Ledward Kaapana whom I've admired as a musician, recording artist, and friend. His music career spans over 40 years and during those years he has accomplished a lot. Born and raised near the famous black sand beaches of Kalapana on the Big Island of Hawaii, Ledward learned the art of playing slack key guitar at an early age from his friends, family, and especially his uncle Fred Punahoa. These early beginnings stayed with him throughout his career and are largely responsible for who he is today. Once a member of the legendary group Hui Ohana which recorded over 14 albums and then the group Ikona with several more album projects, Led has had a very successful solo career recording with Dancing Cat REcords and finally with Rhythm Roots Records. It is his recent Rhythm Roots recording which led to him being nominated for a Grammy Award in 2006 in the newly created Hawaiian Music Category. In all, Ledward has recorded nearly 100 recording projects over the last 35 years with no end in sight. To witness Ledward perform on the slack key guitar can sometimes bring tears to your eyes. He is the consummate kihoalu artist. He is the living Grandmaster of the genre - someone who plays effortlessly and with joy. Best of all, with all of his accolades and accomplishments, Ledward remains unchanged as a person and an artist. Humble to the core and talented to the bone. Ledward knows no other way but the Kalapana Way. In this new outing, Ledward shines once again on the slack key guitar. However, falsetto has always been a part of his package and there is much to celebrate on this recording. I'm confident that this latest recording will surely satisfy the Led-Heads My hope is that my relationship with Ledward will continue to grow and our future recording projects will bring joy to all of Hawaii Nei and the world. Through his music all of our spirits are uplifted. He Hawaii Au!
