New sonic prisms of contemporary world flavors, mixed in varied and often divergent styles and genres yet presenting the listener with a cornucopia of musical experiences cohesively in concert form, 13 MP3 Songs WORLD: World Fusion, EASY LISTENING: Music Hall Show all album songs: Whirld Songs Details: New prisms of contemporary "world" flavors from West to the Far East, from India to NY, from Celtic to Caribbean and mixed in styles and genres as varied: orchestral to techno, classical to rock, fiddle to jazz fusion, sitar to harp and choral. As in past releases, this work is presented in "concert" form for those listeners so inclined. The opening work, "cornucopia" is intended as the introduction, the starting point for this sonic journey, with the intermission at the end of the 6th cut, "sky/cliff/ocean". As the title "Whirld" suggests the pieces that follow are shaded from such varied positions, textures, and genres as to present a cornucopia of colorful musical offerings in series. "Whirld" then, in concert, allows for a cohesive world flavored musical odyssey. This is the fifth CD released in this "in-house Concert" tm Series. All are available on popular internet music sites including: iTunes, Amazon, Napster, Rhapsody, E music etc.
