As a youngest he moved with his family to Minneapolis, MN. A drug addicted mother and an absentee father was the catalyst that propelled Antwon to turn to the street in Pursuit of love to soothe the pain of his lost childhood. Instead of love all he found in the drug infested streets of north Minneapolis was poverty stricken nightmares. Antwon began to study the music from a artist standpoint and became to record his label off a short string budget for small process from former friend of his street past became to shape what is now Brickboy2.2 Entertainment. With the music intact Antwon began to search for those whom can help him shape Brickboy2.2 Entertainment. He enlisted long time friend Jaheed Abdul-Malik whom became Co-Owner and together they became to build this company.
