Three Swords, One Heart N.J. Walters Malik and Kalis are cursed to forever wander the world, searching for the one woman who can break the curse that has plagued their family for seven generations. In each generation of their family, the firstborn are always twin boys who bear the mark of the curse. The woman destined to break the curse is a warrior woman, adept at hunting and battle-a woman who will give herself and her love freely to both men. Upon the death of her father, Zarina is cast out of her desert tribe.

Raised more as a male than female, she is more at home wielding a blade than tending a home. When their paths collide, both men know they have found the right woman, but Zarina is mistrustful. Do they want her simply because they believe she can break the curse or does their attraction go deeper than that? But fate will not be denied and the three wounded souls must face their destiny together.
