"SPIRIT WORLD" is a 14-track CD that is personal and poignant. . Buggin, a Native Hip Hop artist goes more mainstream in his message on this new CD. Still, the message for Native Americans is still there. Buggin follows up with another track on this CD from his signature "Dedication to Leonard Peltier" song with "Beat Goetz On (Leonard Peltier)." It's an awesome track featuring Keith Smith, Native traditional background vocals. Buggin produced, wrote, and mastered all the material..good stuff. 'Buggin Malone' is of Oneida and Potawatomi tribal descent. Most of his material has its roots in political activism. He began writing while incarcerated as a teen. He speaks and raps on violence and issues of Native American injustice, poverty and oppression. His songs reflect his vision of the world and his place in it. He is best known for his signature and passionate rap honoring Leonard Peltier. At the age of 30, Buggin Malone has enough life experience to write on a variety issues, and he has. He can relate to young people who have become involved in abuse and use because he's been there. His new CD is powerful. Listen up.
