My Mind's Island is a superb collection of songs. Though roots based, it covers quite a range, the songs focus on themes of individuality, and humanity and subtle emotions. The album features his Talking Fish band and many special guests, including Canadian singer Jodi Krangle from the band Urban Tapestry and folk-rock diva Vikki Clayton. US born Conway plays 10 instruments himself and weaves them with the other players, to make a masterpiece which stylistically touches on Celtic folk, US West Coast, jazz, Latin, acoustic, funky, and ambient realms. However despite the diversity in styles and approach, Chris Conway never loses sight of the songs and their lyrics which are perhaps the jewel in the crown of the album. Evident throughout is a warmth, and a dedication to detail, and the sheer mastery of a truly creative individual. for a track by track description and more background info on My Mind's Island see btinternet.com/unclechristo/cd_mmi.html Chris Conway has toured the UK playing with Monkee Peter Tork, and has also played with members of Jethro Tull and Fairport Convention.
