HERE'S WHAT PEOPLE ARE SAYING: "Gee's stage and vocal presence is sensual, angelic and electrifying." Patrick Melanson, Musical Director for Half Moon Festival/New Hampshire "Gee isn't your standard cookie-cutter, girl-with-a-guitar-and-a-bunch-of-poems singer. She's closer in style and heart to Peter Gabriel and U2 there is a filling largeness to her tunes that transcend the speakers than anyone else I can think of. Diametrically, her songs are both subtle and sensual, deeply personal yet they are also of that rare ilk: they are hummable too." Entertainment Today "...so sweetly combines vulnerability with defiance... Texas Joan of Arc" Music Connection "Gee and her band...create music that's every bit as powerful as it is delicate and sensual. Her music comes from a deep, vulnerable place, and Gee has the ability to share herself". The Flash "Deborah Gee has a voice worth hearing and Portal is a collection of songs worth listening to." Desert Post Weekly
