A mix of hiphop techno jazz electronic all fused into the most wildest beat compact disc ever made 20 MP3 Songs HIP HOP/RAP: Hip Hop, ELECTRONIC: Breakbeat/Breaks Details: a kid growing up in a small town called lansing i often wondered what my life would of been like without music? maybe i would of been a mute performing at weddings. i've always loved music i can remember me, my mother, and my brother watching mtv in the early eighties singing " i wear my sunglasses at night" as i think to myself now i recall many songs that made me walk this yellow brick which is now i'm known through out the streets as THE BEAT MAKER. this album is not like many that you heard. i took that which i learned from oblique's dyeV.S.ity and 2ghunz albums and mixed the two ideas together then mixed in techno, funk, jazz, and the memories that i used to known as a child in lansing now that i'm a man in detroit. the reason i called my album: An 8th floor affair besides the fact that the studio and cj-records are located on the 8th floor is that it's like me and the beats are in a non-stop orgy while my 22 babies mommas sit at home with my 78 kids.....do the math! whether you buy or you take a couple of seconds to listen.... thax u also take the time out to checkout my other lablemates...yes even my rival I.P.M like are motto says... til next time peace out mutha fukas!!!! p.s to find out more on doc luv jones or other cj-r artist visit christopherjeromerecordsalso feel free to write us to tell us what like or to cuss us out(just kidding). also check out other christopher jerome records..... oblique southside dubbing crew likqitman nyjm digga ipm 2ghunz doc luv jones dj pes street symbok and a host of other great and crazy artist p.s for you beat makers on a budget looking for sounds for fruity loops or other music making software that reads wav files check us out at: christopherjeromerecords.com/thaheatWAVsounds.html
