Folk-Rock, ROCK: Americana Details: James Parkington is a singer and songwriter who enjoys making music for the fun of it. Whether its a western wind blowing in or a sunrise on the big blue horizon, theres a melody to go along with every little adventure. It just keeps changing. Shine Blue is mostly a collection of songs written after a move from San Francisco to New Hampshire in 2006 with one carryover (31st Street) from his days with the ever-elusive SF band, Eight Track Derby (a mellower version of the song 31st Street Odyssey). Sunflowers is an instrumental featuring James mom, Joanne on violin. Sail Home is a song written by James uncle David Parkington, who can be found in a sunset over Sunkin Meadow Bay on Cape Cod. People who are interested in Bob Dylan The Band Greg Brown should consider this download.
