Details: JUDY ARMSTRONG and TINK ROBINSON Husband and wife team, JUDY ARMSTRONG and TINK ROBINSON are entertainers, speaker/songwriters, directors, coaches and workshop facilitators who have worked with people from around the globe. They are well known for their popular theatrical shows in Heritage Fort Steele, BC, Canada where, for 13 summer seasons until 1989, they produced, wrote, directed and performed at the Wild Horse Theater. Audiences loved listening to Judy sing and then watch her transform from her beautiful 1890s gown to play the outrageously funny old Granny, a character she created at the Fort and which she often uses in her work to help people laugh at themselves. Tink and Judy have recently been heralded for their latest successful CD, KIDS (for all ages). They continue to travel extensively, delivering keynotes, trainings, workshops and entertainment. Tink and Judy will tickle your funny bone, help you lighten up, readjust your attitude, realize your dreams and say Yes to life. As well as singing the music from KIDS (for all ages) to work with children, Tink and Judy use the songs to bring out the playfulness in adults. They continue to collaborate in writing music, performing, recording, keynote speaking, coaching and facilitating workshops. Through laughter, drama, music and rhythm, Tink and Judy help you free your creative, playful 'kid' inside, lead from your heart and rediscover your own uniqueness and sense of fun. TINK ROBINSON, a 40-year veteran of professional entertainment, has amassed more than 200 national television shows, eight years of Dealer shows, seven seasons with Theater Under The Stars, toured

Canada with Best of Spring Thaw and was choreographer/performer with the Wayne and Shuster Show (CBC - TV, Toronto,) for five seasons. Tink, a National Member of CAPS (Canadian Association of Professional Speakers) and NSA (National Speakers Association), is an active keynote speaker who is known as The Inspirational Humorist. JUDY ARMSTRONGS professional career includes special guest appearances with the late Danny Kaye (CBS - TV, Hollywood) and featured performances on television specials, concert stage and conventions. She has performed leading roles in musicals in most of the major theaters in Canada. Judys work with sound and the emotional, physical and spiritual well-being of the whole person has led her to compose, sing and produce six unique records. With her outrageous sense of humor and using her extensive experience in music, performance and theater, Judy makes you laugh, touches your heart and inspires you to be fully present in each moment. "The evening belongs to two outstanding performers, Tink Robinson and Judy Armstrong, who displayed their versatility and professionalism!" VANCOUVER SUN Tink and Judy are better than just good they are outstanding! CALGARY HERALD KIDS (for all ages) by TINK ROBINSON and JUDY ARMSTRONG Co-written, performed and recorded by Tink and Judy, KIDS (for all ages) is collection of entertaining, fun-filled rhythmic songs with positive messages to bring out your playful side. It takes you on a creative musical adventure filled with humor and catchy rhythms and introduces you to the funny and zany old Granny (a character played by Judy) and the down home, loveable Underarm Tom (a character played by Tink). The music invites you to sing along and fills your heart with the wonder and spontaneity of children. Learning through music and rhythm improves confidence, self-worth, listening, tolerance, imagination, self-expression, environmental awareness, cooperation, concentration and creativity.
