Evolutionary folk/chants bridging diverse forms of mysticism through eclectic instrumentation, and progressive lyrics. A unique expression for the journey home. 11 MP3 Songs FOLK: Modern Folk, NEW AGE: Healing Details: Aloha, I am Kalyani, and I've written my fair share of juicy, cathartic songs about addictions, lust, betrayal and repentance. Now I ask, is this what I want to share? My 3rd cd OMACHI is about waking up, coming home and dissolving barriers. Bridging diverse forms of mysticism through eclectic instrumentation and progressive lyrics. The biggest island of Hawaii drew me in with an undeniable pull. They say jump and a net will appear... Early on wise travelers told me water is love, gentle, strong and persistent. So I jumped in again and again into these arms, renewing trust and connection with all my relations. Through channels of grace and deep listening we find our voice. unlocking generations of repression. Mysha Caruso (myshacaruso.com) contributes generously his gifts, lending hot bass lines and a Celtic touch to reveal my own bloodline and evoke the green fairy hills of enchantment where we live and did our recording at his Kohala mountain studio. Stuart Oliver of Feta and Shiraz (fetaandshiraz.com) shares his golden touch on every instrument he can get his hands on. Flowing with a sensitive and passionate heart is Adele Wynne and her extraordinary gypsy violin. It is with Joy and gratitude that I may offer OMACHI to accompany you on your journey for your listening pleasure, re-creation and highest good.
