Details: Mckmn: Dark Fairytales The person behind mckmns (mockmoon) eclectic electronic music is the 26 year old Dutch artist Terence Koot. His style is heavily influenced by breakbeat, electro and triphop. But elements from jazz, rock and movie scores, computer games, classical choir singing and even the 80s can also be found in his songs. Everything is wonderfully blended together into a typical mockmoon meltingpot: rich, layered music that invites you to dream. The number Ganymede for example, reminds you of the threatening atmosphere of woods and wolves, The Great White Open of a spooky and jazzy dark sea shore and the lighter Anemone sounds faerylike and lovely. Every song is complex and organic and can best be described as dark fairytales with a happy ending.
