Details: NIAYH is a collective of musicians who have come together to express an appreciation for the present. An acronym for Now Is All You Have, the term NIAYH has also come to signify the divinity of the moment. The band is comprised of four members hailing from across North and South America. Drawing from a variety of old school and cultural influences with a contemporary vibe, NIAYH describes their sound as hip-hop infused, psychedelic soul, rock, rhythm blues. Above all, their music is deeply physical: hypnotic grooves and rhythms support eclectic compositions, classic lead guitar, and folk-soul vocals. Imagine a tea party with Pink Floyd, Medeski, Martin Wood and Amy Winehouse. On a fundamental level it is a way of life that sets NIAYH apart from other independent artists. As of August 2008 the band will move permanently into Wally (their 1978 converted school bus) and set out indefinitely to disseminate both their music and philosophy. As a troupe of traveling musicians, NIAYH hopes to build a family of like-minded artists around the nation (and eventually the world). While it stands on its own, the music is intended to be the vessel through which their message can gain exposure.
